

ALLEGED THAT WOMEN DID NOT TELL TRUTH

Charged With Committing Perjury in Testifying in Behalf of Pastor.

AN AGED CITIZEN DEAD

Mr. John Saunders Pollard, of Petersburg, Passes Away. To Have New Bridge.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, Va., September 20.—The Eli Tarratt assault case, which was called in the Hustings Court yesterday and set for trial October 1st, produced interesting and serious developments this morning, when Alice Price, sister-in-law of Tarratt, and Nannie Watkins, who live at the parsonage of the Harrison Street Baptist Church, colored, were arrested by Detectives Eames and Heelan on the charge of perjury. The allegation being that at Tarratt's trial in the Mayor's Court, on the charge of assaulting with a pistol J. H. Mason, a colored employee in the office of T. C. Johnson, a negro lawyer here, the women falsely swore that the negro minister did not go to Johnson's office on September 2d, the date of the alleged crime, but had remained at the parsonage all day.

Nedham Higgins, one of the prosecution's witnesses, swears that he saw Tarratt enter Johnson's office on September 2d, and several others testify that they met him on the street. The warrants for arrest of the alleged perjurers were issued by Chief of Police Ragland, at the request of Commonwealth's Attorney R. H. Mann, and the two women were bailed by Justice W. O. Newman in the sum of $200 each, the case to be tried in the Mayor's Court to-morrow. Their friend, Tarratt, furnished the bail.

Flight on the Report.

The affairs of the negro preacher are occupying the attention of the courts to a remarkable extent. In the Hustings Court to-day Messrs. George S. Bernard and Bernard Mann, counsel for the anti-Tarratt faction in the divided Harrison Street Baptist Church, made exceptions to the report of the commissioner appointed to hold a congregational meeting at the church, when Tarratt was sustained by a considerable majority. Messrs. R. B. Davis and Paul Pettit, counsel for Tarratt and his supporters, argued their motion that the court dissolve the injunction restraining Tarratt from holding services at the church, and closing the building until the final settlement of the case by the court. Judge Mullen stated that he would at once begin examination of the papers, and would soon render his decision.

To Have New Bridge.
The old Campbell's Bridge across the Appomattox River, connecting Petersburg and Ettrick, is to be replaced by a new structure, the cost of which will be paid by the city and the county of Chesterfield. The present bridge will be closed next Monday, and during the ensuing week.

Mr. John S. Pollard Dead.
Mr. John Saunders Pollard, a well-known and highly esteemed citizen, died about 4 o'clock this morning at his residence on Byrne Street. Mr. Pollard was sixty-three years old, and had long been an invalid as a result of paralysis. He was superintendent of the S. W. Venable Tobacco Company's factory here for twenty-seven years, previous to its purchase by the Continental Tobacco Company. Mr. Pollard is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters, who are Mrs. Harry C. Lee, Mrs. L. L. Ledbetter, Mr. Nelson Pollard, of this city; Mrs. T. W. Luck, of Richmond; Messrs. R. A. Pollard, of Washington, D. C., and A. L. Pollard, of Albemarle.

GREENWOOD GIVEN 15 YEARS.
Long Term Sentence for Shooting Man From Ambush.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, Va., September 20.—For the killing of Francis M. Puckett, whom he shot from ambush August 21, 1905, Martin Greenwood, a young man, has been sentenced to eighteen years in the penitentiary. In the Circuit Court at Hillsville, Carroll county, Va., Greenwood escaped after the killing, which was located at Mary Island, Va., recently, where he had enlisted in the army. A woman whom he had succeeded in inducing to leave her husband turned enemy and furnished the information which led to his capture.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED.

Ten Cars of Coal Dumped, Blocking Traffic for Twelve Hours.

LYNCHBURG, Va., September 20.—A serious freight wreck occurred last night about 11:30 o'clock near Evington, fifteen miles south of Lynchburg, which completely tied up the entire traffic of the system for nearly twelve hours.

GATHRUIT—WALDROP.

Pretty Wedding at "Jenette Farm," the Home of the Bride.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CARDWELL, Va., September 20.—A marriage of much interest to a large circle of friends took place last evening at "Jenette Farm," the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Waldrop, when their daughter, Miss Lelia C. Waldrop, was united in marriage to Mr. Gathruit, Rev. F. L. Hart officiating. The parlor was beautifully decorated with cut

XTRAGOOD Clothes Command Favor —Lead in Quality

It's harmless for boys to play soldier; but pretense in clothes-making brings trouble.
Pretense is shamming the real; claiming quality and value that does not exist.
All pretense is carefully avoided at this store by selling XTRAGOOD clothes; the most durable, reliable brand made; the honest, guaranteed kind.
It's inside worth—as well as outer attractiveness—that makes XTRAGOOD best. You get more than it's cost in long, hard wear; and the satisfaction that comes from lasting, good appearance.
Sailor and Russian Suits for boys 2½ to 10 years, large collar trimmed with silk braid, emblem on shield. Made in serges, worsteds, chevrons of various colors and patterns.

roses, evergreens and ferns, the color scheme being pink and white. Miss Jessie Mae Garrett was maid of honor; she wore pink crepe de chine and carried pink roses. Mr. Carroll C. Gathright, cousin of the bride and groom, acted as best man. The presents were pretty and numerous, which shows the popularity of the bride. Shortly after the ceremony the couple left for the Jamestown Exposition, where, after spending a week they will return to their future home, Sabot, Va. Among the guests from a distance who attended the marriage were Mrs. John Baltimore, of Richmond, Va.; Miss Jessie Mae Garrett, Ballsville, Va., and many friends and relatives from Hanover and adjoining counties.

CRUSHED AGAINST TREE.

Respected Negro Accidentally Killed—

Fredericksburg News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., September 20.—John H. Barnett, a respected colored man of Spotsylvania county, was accidentally killed yesterday while hunting gum wood. On a hillside he stopped and choked the wagon to rest the horses. The wheel rolled over the chock and pulled the horses back. Barnett was caught between the wagon and a large tree and his chest crushed.

The body of a negro infant was found yesterday floating in the Rappahannock River here. It was turned over to an undertaker and buried by the authorities. No clue as to the child's identity.

Edward Smith, of Spotsylvania county, brought to the city to-day two quarts of ripe strawberries gathered from his garden. He says the vines are filled with green strawberries, which he expects to ripen.

A distinguished party of one hundred prominent office-holders, citizens and newspaper men of Greater New York will visit this city on October 20, viewing the points of interest here and going from here to Richmond and the exposition.
